Community Workshop

On Tuesday 12th May, parents, governors, parishioners and many more came to help us create temporary art work for our project and what a fantastic turn out it was.

Participants had to cut out circles using a template, draw a triangle in the centre of the circle and finally fold the edges. They then stuck these together to make a 20 sided 3D shape (icosahedron).

Thank you to everyone who turned up to support us.