Developing Independence

The first week of the summer term has been a busy and enjoyable week. Y4 went off to York and had a fantastic time learning about the Vikings (and Romans) and sleeping over with their friends. They were all fantastic and a credit to the school. I was a bit worried on Monday morning when it was hail-stoning outside but the sun came out and the walk into York and back by the river was very pleasant. It was lovely to see all the Y4's playing together and they were very organised and self-sufficient during the trip, which was amazing to see. Have a great weekend and see you all on Monday.

In a couple of weeks, Y6 will be sitting their SATs. To support them during this week, please can all parents and carers make every effort to ensure their children arrive promptly to help create a calm and quiet atmosphere in school. Also, during this week some playtimes may change to ensure there is no one outside the exam rooms.
